

Tech-Geeks.org was established in December 1999, by Illinois K-12 School technology professionals, as a conduit for getting and giving technical support. Tech-Geeks.org is used to give advice, get advice, share technical experiences, broadcast security issues...the list is endless. On any given day, there may be twenty to thirty different conversation threads and technical discussions distributed, to over five-hundred Tech-Geeks.org members.